

Marchex Announces Closing of VoiceStar Acquisition, Bringing Call-Based Services to Marchex Local Advertising Platform

September 24, 2007

SEATTLE, WA - SEPTEMBER 24, 2007

Marchex, Inc. (NASDAQ: MCHX, MCHXP), a local online advertising company and leading publisher of local content, today announced that it has completed its acquisition of VoiceStar, one of the largest providers of call-based advertising services for local advertisers, for approximately $20 million, including approximately $12.9 million in cash and $7.1 million in restricted stock.

The acquisition of VoiceStar enhances Marchex's leadership position in local online advertising by adding call-based services, including pay-per-phone-call and call-tracking, to its local online advertising platform, making it one of the most comprehensive offerings available. With VoiceStar, Marchex has added thousands of local advertisers to its system, along with more than 100 partners, such as Comcast, the Cobalt Group, YellowBook USA, Admob, Teleflora, Enpocket, and Landmark Communications.

"We are very pleased to have closed this transaction so quickly and are now focused on integrating VoiceStar's call-based marketing solutions into our local online advertising platform and local content network," said Peter Christothoulou, Marchex Chief Strategy Officer.

The Kelsey Group estimates that the pay-per-phone-call market will reach up to $4 billion by 2009, while a recent Kelsey survey reports that 71% of local advertisers would rather pay for phone calls versus clicks.

VoiceStar will continue to operate from its headquarters in Philadelphia, PA as a wholly owned Marchex subsidiary.
