YELLOWPAGES.COM and Marchex Announce New Agreement to Provide Internet Search Marketing Services for Local Advertisers

GLENDAL, CA and SEATTLE, WA – October 15, 2007 – YELLOWPAGES.COM, a subsidiary of AT&T (NYSE:T) and a leading local search and Internet Yellow Pages destination, and Marchex, Inc. (NASDAQ: MCHX, MCHXP), a local advertising company and leading provider of local content, today announced a new multi-year agreement in which Marchex will continue to provide its local Internet search marketing services to YELLOWPAGES.COM's broad base of local advertisers.

Under the terms of the new agreement, YELLOWPAGES.COM will continue to leverage Marchex's services to fulfill the YPclicks! Search Engine Solutions search marketing packages sold by YELLOWPAGES.COM and AT&T across the United States. Marchex Connect, Marchex's highly scalable private-label search marketing platform, is used to create, target and manage YELLOWPAGES.COM'S advertiser campaigns and fulfill them through placements on major search engines and Marchex's local content network.

"YELLOWPAGES.COM's online advertising products deliver value to local advertisers across the nation. This new agreement with Marchex extends our ability to offer our customers best-in-class search marketing solutions," said Charles Stubbs, President and Chief Executive Officer of YELLOWPAGES.COM.

"We are seeing solid year-over-year growth in new local advertiser accounts, and we are pleased to be extending our long-term agreement to provide services to help power YELLOWPAGES.COM's local search marketing products and deliver results for their local advertisers," said John Keister, Marchex President and Chief Operating Officer. "YELLOWPAGES.COM's and AT&T's product offerings and large sales force, combined with Marchex's scalable technology and ability to provide traffic from our local content network, make this an ideal relationship."
